Principles of the Quality Service Charter

Presentation

The Roma Capitale Museum Network is composed by several sites (Annex 1: list and description of services in each museum) and art collections of great historical and artistic significance. They are subject to several institutional activities of study, conservation and research, and also have a common project of elaboration, production and cultural valorisation.

The Network coordinates human, technological and financial resources in order to offer to customers the following services: cultural activities and exhibitions of great significance, welcoming, ticketing and attendant services, educational services and activities, publishing and merchandising services.

The Managing Company is in charge of managing and enhancing the museums of the Network by organizing events, exhibitions, conferences, concerts and educational tours and workshops (Annex 2: the Managing Company).

What is the Quality Service Charter

The Quality Service Charter of the Roma Capitale Museum Network follows the ICOM definition of the museum as "not for profit. They are participatory and transparent, and work in active partnership with and for diverse communities to collect, preserve, research, interpret, exhibit, and enhance understandings of the world, aiming to contribute to human dignity and social justice, global equality and planetary wellbeing". The focus of its interests are society and customers. The Charter lists the general principles, visiting information for each museum (address and web site, telephone numbers, opening hours, admission fees, available services, accessibility to disabled people), the role of the Managing Company and the matrix of the indexes for the validation of the standards. The purposes of the document are the promotion of the available services, the transparency in the relations between the Roma Capitale Museum Network and customers, the qualification of the services offered. The Network aims at satisfying the needs of customers by identifying the most appropriate actions that allows it to always understand new and different needs. The Roma Capitale Museum Network will be equipped with new venues. The implementation of services in compliance with the Quality Service Charter standards will be achieved within six months from the date of appointment of the Managing Company.

Legal references

This Charter follows the principles contained in the following documents:

- Code of Professional Ethics ICOM-UNESCO adopted by the 15th General Assembly of ICOM (International Council of Museums), in Buenos Aires, Argentina, on November 4th 1986.
- Prime Minister's Directive issued on January 27th, 1994: "Principles on the supply of public services".
- Prime Minister's Directive issued on October 11th, 1994: "Principles for the setting up and operation of Public Relations Offices".
- Lazio Regional Law no. 42 November 24th, 1997: Rules regarding cultural services and heritage.
- Article 11 of Legislative Decree No. 286 of 1999.
- Decree of the Ministry of the Cultural Heritage and Environmental Conservation issued on 10 May 2001 – Guideline on technical-scientific criteria and standards of functioning and development of museums.
- Code of Cultural Heritage and Landscape, approved with Legislative decree January 22nd, 2004, no. 42.
- Article 2, paragraph 461, 2008 Finance Law.

It is understood that any amendments, supplements or re-enactments to the above regulation must be considered as transposed.

General principles

The Quality Service Charter is based on the following principles:

Equality and impartiality

All customers shall have access to the services offered by the Network at the same conditions. Equality means the ban of any unjustified discrimination. Therefore, anything shall be done in order to conform the performance of the service to the needs of customers with special needs. Wheelchairs are available in the main museums for visitors who have difficulty in walking.

Continuity

The services shall be continuous and be provided on a regular basis. In case of obstacles the Roma Capitale Museum Network will inform customers in advance and will adopt the necessary measures to minimize inconvenience.

Participation

Customers can make remarks, have demands or suggest proposals to improve the service. The Roma Capitale Museum Network gives a feedback to customers about their suggestions and proposals within one month.

Courtesy

Customers shall be treated with courtesy and respect. The staff shall be recognizable, helpful and ready to respond promptly and correctly to any information and inquiry.

Effectiveness and efficiency

The Roma Capitale Museum Network aims to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of its service by adopting the best technological, organizational and procedural solutions to reach its goal.

Clearness and intelligibility of the messages

The Roma Capitale Museum Network is committed to do its best for the clearness and effectiveness of the language used with customers.

Validity & update

The Charter is valid since its publication and represents a contractual commitment by rights on behalf of the Roma Capitale Museum Network. This version might be updated every two years.

User safeguards

In order to protect customers in the respect of this document an office of the Quality Service Charter has been established by the Managing Company. In charge of evaluating the quality of the given service, this office verifies systematically and continually, also with the participation of customers, the conformity to standards, the degree of satisfaction of customers and the possibility to improve the service. Quantity methods are used to survey the satisfaction of customers, through instruments apt to know the opinion of as many customers as possible: questionnaires of customer satisfaction and collection of suggestions and complaints forms.

Suggestions and complaints

Customers' suggestions and complaints concerning the services described in this Charter are welcome and they can be addressed to:

Ufficio Carta dei Servizi di Zetema Progetto Cultura srl, Via Attilio Benigni 59 - 00156 Roma tel. 06 820771; ufficiocartadeiservizi@zetema.it or by filling a form on the website of the Network. In line with Municipal Resolution no. 136 of June 16th, 2005, all suggestions and complaints (letters, email, etc.) will be replied to within 30 days of receipt.

Compensation

If one of the services listed in this Charter is not provided, or if there is any unexpected delay in dealing with your complaint, the Managing Company compensates, upon request, for all or part of the costs incurred (also by giving free/reduced entrance in the Roma Capitale Museum Network, depending on the damage).

In case of events beyond the control of the Managing Company or for security reasons, total or partial closing will be noticed and tickets will not be refunded. The Managing Company undertakes to reduce the period of the inconvenience.

Quality standards

Some quantitative and temporary indicators are fixed in order to allow customers to verify the factors on which depend the quality of the services pursued by this Charter (Annex 3: Validation matrix of standards). The collected data are published every year on the official websites: www.museiincomuneroma.it and www.zetema.it.

Quality standards - Essential services

Welcome and Ticket Service

Information in Italian and in English are displayed in the ticket office, about:

- price of tickets (full-price, Concessions-rate, combined tickets; during exhibitions, the price of tickets may vary)
- price of videoguides and audioguides
- information and price about MIC Card (sale and renewal)
- free entrances and Concessions tickets
- visitor admission regulations
- notice of possible disruptions

The same information can be also found in French and Spanish on the website:

www.museiincomuneroma.it

The Council resolution (n° 67 - July 28, 2010) states that all the tourists visiting Rome will have to pay a small tourism tax for the services provided by the City.

It is possible to have information about the museum, its events and the Roma Capitale Museum Network from the staff, also in English.

Information leaflets are available in Italian and in English (for Musei Capitolini also in French, Spanish and German) with:

- some historical and artistic information
- timetable
- audioguide and videoguide (only in Musei Capitolini, Mercati di Traiano Museo dei Fori Imperiali and Museo dell'Ara Pacis)
- map (Musei Capitolini, Mercati di Traiano Museo dei Fori Imperiali and Villa Torlonia)
- available services
- events and temporary exhibitions

Information on opening hours and events held in the Roma Capitale Museum Network are provided by: brochures, 060608 Contact Centre, web portal, ticket offices, Tourist Infopoints.

MIC Card

The MIC card offers unlimited access for 12 months in the Roma Capitale Museum Network and in the historical and artistic sites of the Superintendence and concessionary ticket for the exhibition spaces with separate ticketing. It is aimed at adult residents and temporary resident in Rome and its Metropolitan Area, and students of public and private universities in the City. The card is nominative and must always be accompanied by a document of recognition, giving the opportunity to go directly at the entrance of the Museum, without passing through the ticket office. Discounts are available for museum's cafés, bookshops and shops. The MIC Card is valid twelve months after release and can be quickly and easily renewed online, in a museum's ticket office or in a Tourist Infopoint. The MIC Card can also be sold in GIFT version to be given away. The purchaser will be given a kit consisting of MIC Card, postcard with useful information for activation and MIC Card Holders Data Request Form. The beneficiary of the GIFT Card will then have to activate the card by going to one of the ticket offices of the Roma Capitale Museum Network - with a valid identity document and a certificate stating possession of the requirement - and filling in the appropriate MIC Card Holder Data Request Form.

Card Roma Pass 72 hours & 48 hours

The Roma Pass card offers economic facilities and services to simplify the visit of the city. The Roma Pass 72 hours is valid for 72 hours from the first activation, while the Roma Pass 48 hours has 48 hours of validity from the first activation. The first two entrances to museums and/or archaeological sites are free with the Roma Pass 72 hours, while with the Roma Pass 48 hours the first entry to the museum and/or archaeological site is free. For all subsequent museums and/or archaeological sites, reduced admission is required. In addition, during the entire validity of the card, you have free unlimited access to the urban public transport and to the network of guarded toilets P.Stop. Dedicated booking for: Colosseo, Galleria Borghese, Roma Capitale Museum Network, Museo Nazionale Romano, Terme di Caracalla and Palazzo Valentini Domus Romane. There are also discounts for other cultural sites with agreement with the Roma Pass for exhibitions, concerts, theater and dance festivals, theme parks, attractions and tourist services.

Cloakroom

The self-service cloakroom is included in the price of the ticket and can be found in the following museums: Musei Capitolini, Centrale Montemartini, Mercati di Traiano Museo dei Fori Imperiali, Museo dell'Ara Pacis, Museo di Scultura Antica Giovanni Barracco, Museo di Roma, Museo Napoleonico, Galleria d'Arte Moderna, Museo Carlo Bilotti, Museo di Roma in Trastevere, Musei di Villa Torlonia, Planetario and Museo della Repubblica Romana e della memoria garibaldina.

In order to protect the artworks, the staff may ask visitors to leave in the cloakroom bulky bags, rucksacks, umbrellas, and any other potentially dangerous items.

Any complaint should be made as soon as items are collected by filling the complaint form. Items deposited in the self-service cloakroom should be collected before the museum closing time.

Attendant service

Attendant service provides visitors with information - including in English - on museum sections, services and events, and supervises compliance with the museums regulations.

In the museums a vigilance service is guaranteed, with a constant and direct control of the collections, even during exhibitions, congresses and other cultural activities.

Sign System

The immediate identification of Roma Capitale Museum Network is simplified by the use of a unified logo and image.

All the museums can be recognized from outside through banners and/or signage plates indicating the timetables.

In all the museums of the Network there are panels in Italian and in English indicating essential services, such as toilets and - if present - lifts, cafés and bookshops.
